Detailed description of project						Type of services provided
The project aim is to strengthen the role and use of case law by the various legal professions (academic staff, judges, lawyers, trainers of the Judicial Academy, legal analysts) in the Czech republic and to incorporate case law in the curricula of both universities and the Judicial Academy. The project must also give the legal journal "Jurisprudence" a sounder base. CILC and EMP cooperate with the Czech Judicial Academy, the Hugo Grotius Foundation and EMP o.s.p., based in Brno. The project started in June 2003 and will continue until September 2006. Workshops across the Czech republic with the various professional groups in 2004 show adequate progress in the curricula development; the notion of Jurisprudence and its use in the Czech republic is slowly spreading. By the summer, a business plan for the magazine Jurisprudence was adopted. A new series of workshops is foreseen for 2005 as well as a conference in the summer 2005, jointly with the Czech JA/EU law project.						<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - workshops on curriculum development at the four Czech law faculties and at the Judicial Academy; - workshops for judges, in cooperation with the Judicial Academy - workshops for lawyers, in cooperation with the Czech Bar Association - workshops for legal editors - publication of the journal "Jurisprudence" - upgrading of the web-site of EMP - opening and evaluation conferences
